Interested in a digital read?

As of May 9, 2018, Bergen County Cooperative Library System (BCCLS) switched its ebook and e-audiobook platform from Cloud Library to Overdrive. Although you can no longer access the Cloud Library app, you can now download the Overdrive or Libby app for your mobile device or computer. This is especially great news for Kindle users as Overdrive supports all Kindle devices!

Overdrive Supported Devices:

- Android devices (4.0 / 4.4 or higher)
- Apple iOS devices (9.0 or higher)
- Windows 8/10 devices
- Kindle eReaders & Fire tablets
- Kobo eReaders
- Nook tablets & eReaders
- PCs, Macs, & Chromebooks

Getting Started with OverDrive:

First, you will need to get the app for your computer or mobile device.

Libby is Overdrive's new one tap app. The Libby app works on IOS 9+, Android 4.4 + and Windows 10.

Other devices may use the Original Overdrive app. Both apps are user-friendly and enable you to access for free thousands of ebooks and e-audiobooks. For Overdrive assistance in downloading the app, go to: <https://help.overdrive.com/customer/en/portal/articles>. Once the app has been added, open the app. Find your library (Bergen County Cooperative Library System - Oradell Library), add it and your library card number to access this digital collection.

The apps allow you to browse, search, check out, and return digital titles. Note: There is a checkout limit of five items at one time, and the loan period is two weeks.

In addition, Oradell Library offers its residents Hoopla to stream digital movies, music, ebooks and e-audiobooks instantly. You can sign up and/or sign in for Hoopla by visiting: <https://www.hoopladigital.com/>.

Furthermore, through a BCCLS partnership with RBdigital, you can borrow from over 250 popular magazines and read them on your computer or download them to your portable devices. Formerly known as Zinio, RBdigital had a name change and replaced their mobile app. Currently, mobile devices need the RBdigital app to access e-magazines.

RBdigital Supported Devices:

- Android devices
- iPad
- iPhone
- Kindle Fire/HD/HDS
- Windows PCs
- Macs

If you have any questions or need assistance in finding or using any library resource or service, please do not hesitate to call, email or visit the library. I am here to help and I look forward to assisting you.

Special Gifts

In the spring of this year, Oradell lost two very lovely ladies Mrs. Patricia (Pat) Carnevale and Mrs. Jenny Roth. The reason that their passing is mentioned here, is that their families decided to designate the Friends of the Oradell Library as the recipient of gift donations made in honor and memory of both of them.

The Friends collected these funds and secured them in two special accounts. A short time ago there was a meeting of the Library Director, John J. Trause, the Youth Services Librarian, Robin Rockman, the Treasurer of the Friends, George M. Carter, and Audrey Bock, Youth Services Assistant to determine how best to use the money.

Both families wanted the gifts to be made for the Junior Room, and that is what has been done.

Mrs. Carnevale's memorial gift provided for two comfortable club chairs that have an outlet for both AC and USB, so when young people arrive from school, with phones and computers drained from use, they can sit in a comfortable chair, study, and recharge.

The memorial gift for Mrs. Roth consists of two beautiful new work stations, with upholstered chairs and two brand new ChromeBook laptop computers.

The Friends of the Library have been very excited and proud to have been selected for the responsibility of collecting and participating in the choosing of the gifts to commemorate these two ladies. The gift ideas were approved by each family before being purchased.

Both gifts will add immeasurably to the usefulness and décor of the Youth Department. All donors were thanked via personal letters from the Friends.

Special Notice

The Friends of the Library have acquired passes to the Jewish Museum on Fifth Avenue. There are also vouchers available so that a total of four people can visit and enjoy the sights.

Youth Department Librarian

Little fact about me: before I became a librarian, I was in the music business. That's why Libraries Rock, the theme for this year's Summer Reading Program, is a personal favorite. I get to combine my love of music with my love of libraries to make this a fun-filled summer here at the Oradell Public Library. And if actual geological rocks are more your type of "rock", we've got that covered too.

Registration for the reading program is now open via our website, <http://oradell.bccls.org>. Our programs are for all ages: Early Literacy (birth – Kindergarten), Children's (1st grade – 6th grade), Teen (7th grade – 12th grade) and Adult. Whether you are reading to a child or your child is independently reading (or a combination of these), this program is designed to motivate and reward reading over the summer.

The actual logging period is from June 25th – August 12th. We strongly recommend doing this through Beanstack, the online system we use, but if a paper log is preferable, one can be printed out on our website's Summer Reading Page. One of the reasons we like Beanstack is how easy it is to use, a clean interface, and that they continue to make improvements based upon our feedback. Our favorite addition is the mobile Beanstack App, to make logging easy when you are on the go.

Our summer calendar is action packed with programs for all ages. For our youngest patrons, some of the programs we have are story times, Let's Get Messy, Magical Melodies, Music Discovery, Preschool STEAM, Morning Movies. For older children, plenty of craft and art projects, Creative Building Workshop, Drum Jam, Candy Science, a four session Guitar Workshop, the return of last summer's popular LEGO Challenge, and more. For teens, in addition to Trivia Nights and Coloring Club, two favorites during the school year, we also have movie nights, crafts, and Jam Session, an opportunity to try out and play different instruments or just jam with friends.

We thank the Friends of the Oradell Public Library for their support of the Junior Room programs and all of you who support the Friends. Our programs for all ages continue to increase in attendance. As passionate believers of providing a free, community space that brings literacy and hands-on learning experiences to the youth and their families of Oradell, we are beyond appreciative of your support of the library and what we do here. We look forward to seeing you over the summer!

Director's Corner

I have some good news and I have more good news.

Delivery

After nearly a half-year of problems with statewide inter-library delivery, and after careful deliberation now that the problems have been resolved, BCCLS raised the limit for hold requests from 3 items at a time to 10 items! This went into effect on June 1st.

This limit is only for physical content requested from the library system. The limit for eContent holds in OverDrive will remain at 5 items. See page 1 of this newsletter.

Wireless Printing and Photocopying

Wireless printing and photocopying is available throughout the Library. All the public computers on the first and lower level floors of the library are linked to a shared wireless printer / photocopier on the first floor.

Black-and-white printouts are ten cents (10 cents) per printed page paid for in advance and picked up at the shared printer / photocopier.

Color printouts are one dollar ($1.00) per printed page paid for in advance and picked up at the shared printer / photocopier.

The printer / photocopier also has a coin-operated connection for public use.

Printing from electronic devices is available too with instructions on the Library's website.

Electronic Charging Station

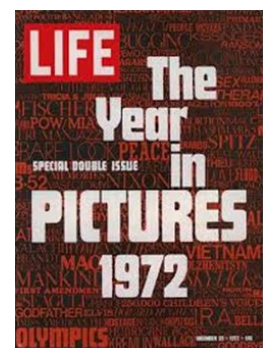

The Library now has a desktop electronic charging station for use by the public. Charge your devices by the bank of computers outside the South Reference Room.

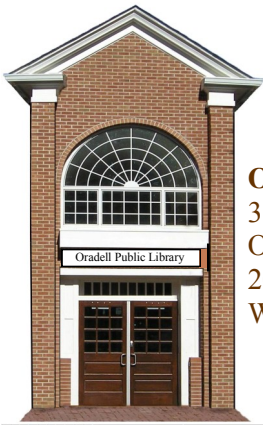

The electronic charging station is generously funded by the Oradell Public Library Foundation.
