Emmy-Award nominee Susanna Rich reads her original poetry to recreate 4-D lived experiences of the battle for Suffrage and Equal Rights. Written from the points of view of a wide range of key figures – from Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton to Alice Paul and Ida B. Wells to 21st century elections – these intimate poems inspire and galvanize.

SHOUT!

POETRY FOR SUFFRAGE

Celebrating the Centennial of the Susan B. Anthony Amendment granting United States Women the Vote!

MONDAY

MARCH 16, 2020

7:00PM

ORADELL PUBLIC LIBRARY

WILD NIGHT PRODUCTIONS